STANDING AGAINST HATE

TOGETHER AGAINST HATE

UNITED AGAINST HATE

IN DADTNEDSHID WITH

Merseyside Police has dedicated hate crime coordinators and officers, whose role is to investigate hate crime. The units were introduced in 2007 and the officers receive training to deal exclusively with hate crime. We recognise the impact of hate crime and are committed to supporting victims ensuring offenders are brought to justice.

We work closely with our partners
The Anthony Walker Foundation,
Stop Hate UK, Daisy UK,
Citizens Advice Bureau and Irish
Community Care, and MOWLL, putting the community first and working to protect the most vulnerable in society.

There is no place for HATE on Merseyside #NoPlaceForHate

"Coping daily is hard enough without being frightened to come out of your house for fear of being abused"

"I've hardly been out...I feel like a prisoner in my own home"

"Why can't I walk down the street without worrying what's going to happen to me?" "I was targeted because of my Hijab. I was going to do some shopping and he said I was responsible for the Manchester terrorist attack"

"I felt humiliated and violated, as though I had done something wrong...It made me angry, depressed"
